MR. L. C. WENDT

Dedication

AS THE ROMANS HONORED VERGIL WHO GAVE TO ROME THE BEST OF ROMAN LITERATURE, WE WISH TO HONOR LEWIS CHARLES WENDT BY DEDICATING TO HIM OUR NINETEEN HUNDRED AND THIRTY-ONE ZOOKITIZAM. HE HAS GIVEN TO THE MT PLEASANT HIGH SCHOOL A SPLENDID ADMINISTRATION AS A LATIN TEACHER, MR. WENDT HAS CARRIED ON THE IDEALS OF THE POET OF THE AGES—VERGIL.

THIS IS THE FIRST TIME OUR SCHOOL HAS EVER HAD A VERGIL CLASS. TO THEM ALSO WE WISH TO GIVE HONOR AND HOPE THAT THEY WILL CARRY OUT INTO THE WORLD THOSE IDEALS AND THAT APPRECIATION OF POETRY WHICH THEY HAVE ACQUIRED THROUGH STUDYING VERGIL.

FOREWORD

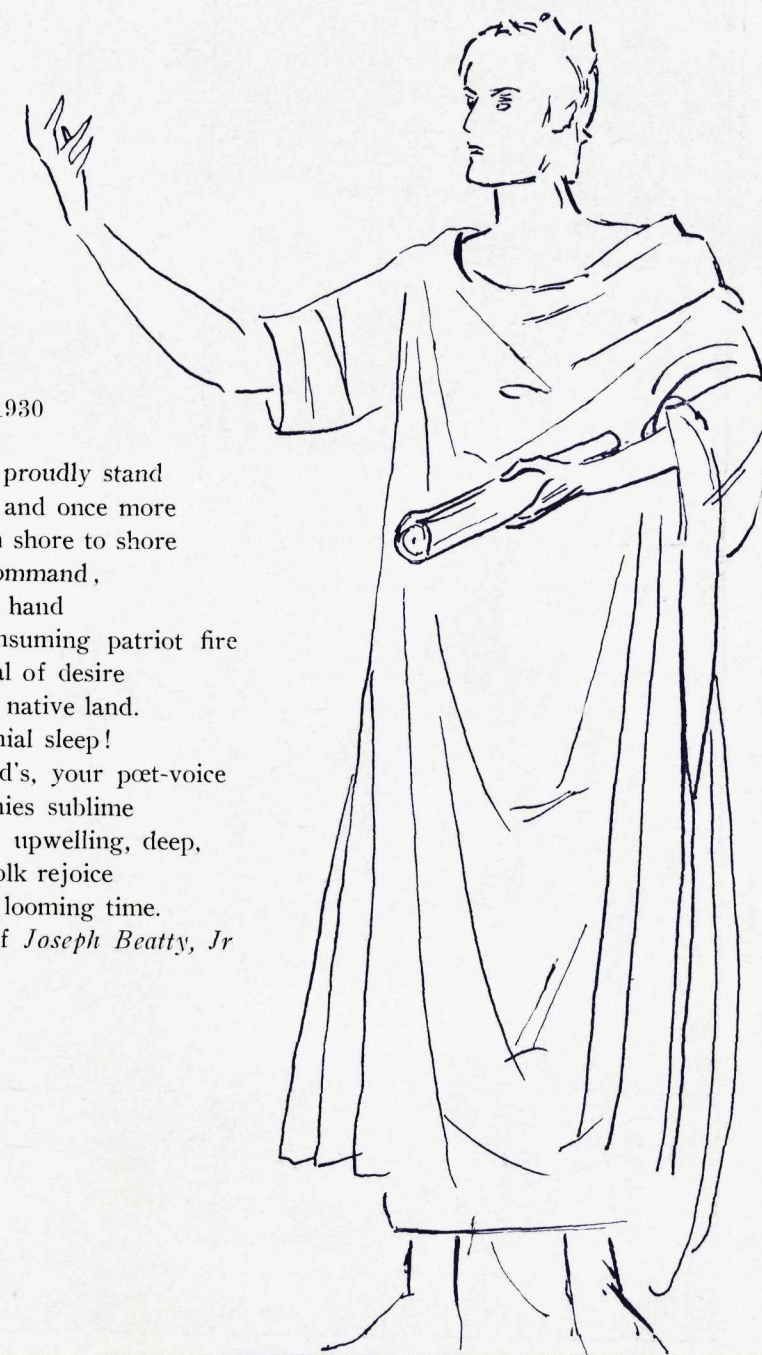

AS THE POEM "VERGIL" TELLS OF THE BIRTHDAY AND WONDERS OF OUR FAMOUS LATIN POET, PUBLIUS VERGILIUS MARO, SO WE HOPE THAT OUR ZOOKITIZAM WILL REVIEW SOME OF THE ACHIEVEMENTS OF OUR SCHOOL YEAR, NINETEEN THIRTY AND THIRTY-ONE. WE ARE NOT ONLY CELEBRATING VERGIL'S BIMILLENIUM, BUT ALSO THE FOUNDING OF MT PLEASANT'S FIRST VERGIL CLASS.

VERGIL, 1930

Once more, exultant legions proudly stand
At steep Trentino's borders, and once more
A Cæsar rules supreme from shore to shore
His loyal race obedient to command,
In peasant cottages on every hand
Hearths burn with sloth-consuming patriot fire
While high on wings imperial of desire
The Roman eagle guards his native land.
Vergil, awake from bimillennial sleep!
Once Roman, now the world's, your poet-voice
Can sing triumphant harmonies sublime
In praise of far-flung peace upwelling, deep,
A pæan that will make the folk rejoice
In realms yet unrevealed by looming time.
By special permission of Joseph Beatty, Jr

OUR HIGH SCHOOL

A HAUNT
ON THE CHIPPEWA

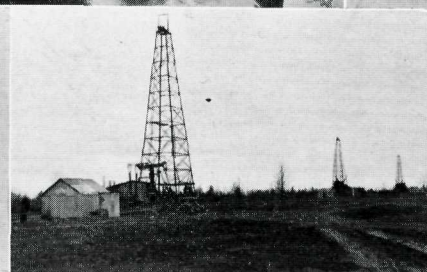

THE departing Seniors go forth with many fond memories connected with our city. Their happiest days are spent in high school where life is so care-free. The Chippewa brings back memories of the "swimming hole," canoeing and picnics.

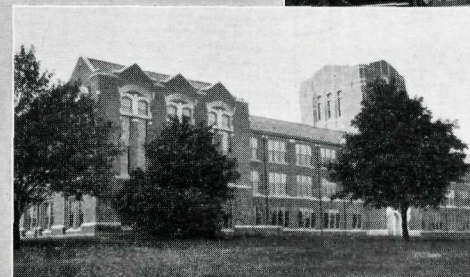

Many have spent summers working hard in the oil field trying to be "men" in order that they might earn a little to spend on and at the "Broadway."

Having fulfilled their obligations in high school, most hope to continue their education in Central State Teachers college.

As members of Mt. Pleasant High School we all join in the appreciation of having as active, interested and loyal a School Board as we now proudly possess. Their constant support has greatly advanced the hopes of every student on the highway of success. We feel that the praise of our many achievements is due to their kindly assistance, wise judgment and guidance.

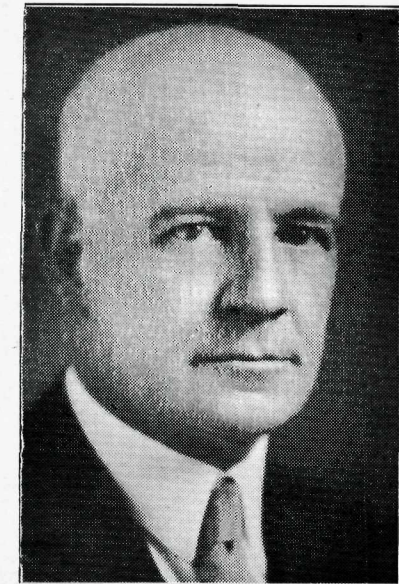

We all mourn the death of Mr W D. Hood who served so well as president of the board. He was always anxious to do those things which would be of the most benefit to our schools.

New enthusiasm and ability have been added this year through our new members, Mr Horn and Mr Thompson. In their short year of service they have proved to be as efficient and capable in school work as they are in the business world.

Administration

The progress of any school depends upon its leaders. We have been truly fortunate in having as our superintendent for the past seventeen years, Mr George E. Ganiard, whose excellent leadership and boundless energy have given to Mt. Pleasant a high school which will be forever loved and respected by her student body. We are proud to call Mr Ganiard our friend, and to extend to him sincere congratulations for his past record and best wishes for the many years to come.

Mr L. C. Wendt, who is completing his seventh year as principal, holds an honored place in the hearts of all students and teachers of Mt. Pleasant High School. He is a capable leader, a good sport, and a true friend to the students, at all times. He serves his school faithfully, not only as a Principal of Mt. Pleasant High School, but also gives his knowledge to the student body in the position of a teacher and without any thought of reward, and it is in a large way due to his tireless service that we have a friendly, well organized school.

1931 Class History

GENESIS—1. In the beginning the class of 1931 was created.

EXODUS—1. And it came to pass in the year of our Lord 1928 that an enemy tribe from the south did join the High-Schoolites and they did mingle together, those that were numbered of them being ninety and three.

I KINGS—1. And at that season there was a gathering and the multitude took unto themselves leaders who were Harry McShea, King, Florence McKnight, Queen, Virginia Clark, Scribe, Mildred Barnes who did hold the offerings. Miss Vanderbush did see that everything was carried out according to custom.

2. And it so happened that there was a vast gathering of the people with great rejoicing and gladness. These did attend the Sophomore Hard Time party.

II KINGS—1. And when a convenient day was come in the succeeding year the tribe was again called together and took unto themselves new leaders who were Virginia Markey, Queen, Paul Robinson, Heir Presumptive, Virginia Clark, Scribe; and Romaine Crampton, Keeper of the Treasury.

2. Coach Osborn did advise the tribe in many weighty matters.

I CHRONICLES—1. And the spirit of gaiety reigned over the land for the time of the J-Hop party had come. And it did surpass the other social events of the year. And the Junior class did also cause the other tribes to marvel for they did acquire much knowledge.

II CHRONICLES—1. And the tribe had grown mighty and did rule the younger tribes, having for its rulers in this Senior year Paul Robinson, King, Florence McKnight, Queen, Cecil Servoss, Scribe; Harold Powers, Treasurer, and Mr. Wendt who did give the tribe of his advice and wisdom.

And it came to pass that certain members of the tribe did excell in logic and the strings of their tongues were loosed, bringing laurels to the Seniors. These were Virginia Clark and Harold Daugherty.

3. And our warriors did do great deeds of valor upon the field of battle capably filling the great gap left by the preceding ruling tribe. Many of these did win the right to wear tokens of their prowess.

JUDGES—1. And it so happened that when the fifth month was come, there was darkness over the whole land with much agony and burning of midnight oil. For the oppressors did fall upon us with many unanswerable questions.

LAMENTATIONS—1. And the plague came upon some members of the tribe, but others found favor in the sight of their judges.

THE ACTS—1. Also the Seniors did garb themselves in strange attire, putting away serious things and did resort to disguises upon Senior Day.

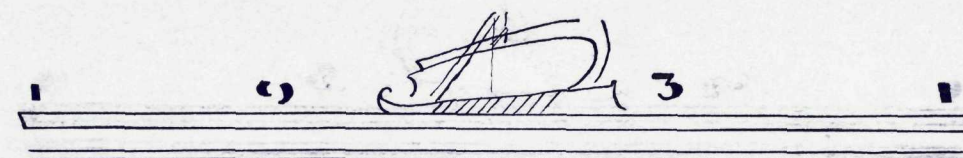

2. And at that season among the tribe of Seniors there were those who did gather upon the stage, these being players of many parts.

3. And when a convenient day was come the tribes did mingle and make merry with music and dancing at the great Senior Prom.

REVELATIONS—1. And lo, suddenly the years behind were as naught and the time was come when the Senior tribe would be dissolved and each member would strive individually toward the Promised Land.

2. And the possessions of the tribe were divided equally among all its members, these being knowledge, experience, vast stores of memories, and friendships beyond price.

Class Will

We, the class of 1931, heretofore sworn and adjudged sane and in our right minds by our worthy attending physician, the Honorable Doctor Wendt, do hereby make our last will and statement. We hope that the receivers of our many valued possessions will appreciate them, and in due course of time pass them on to others deserving of them.

To the Juniors we bequeath the management of the teachers with good wishes for their success.

Wesley Riches lends his big feet to Jean McClintic, while Curly Hendershot wills his "way with women" to Romaine Crampton.

Ardath Wille lays at the feet of Jeanette Houghtaling her ability for æsthetic dancing.

Leo McGregor and Virginia Tice leave their minuteness to King Lewis and Betty Russell.

Paul Robinson grants his executive authority to the President of the Senior class of '32.

Florence McKnight bequeaths her charming personality to Jean Northway.

Jack Gibson lends his tall frame to Russell Dart, hoping it will be appreciated and well used.

Marjorie Turnbull wills her superiority complex to Doris Bugbee.

Harold Knight bestows his dazzling red crown upon any Junior who cares to henna his hair.

Marvel Warner leaves her superb athletic ability to Mildred Hooker.

Harold Powers bequeaths his budding genius to Ernest Monroe.

Verona Francisco wills her worldly wisdom to the Junior most needing it.

Edward Van Dyne presents his recently acquired addition of weight to Eugene Johnston, with the hope that it will be well appreciated.

Marguerite Colby leaves her schoolgirl complexion to Jane Hawkins.

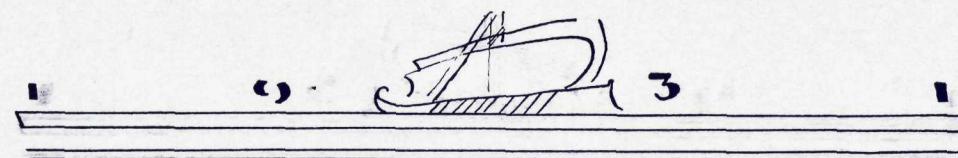

Virginia Clark bequeaths her sunny disposition to any Junior girl who can affect an exceptionally lovely smile.

Signed, sealed, and published by the Senior class of Mount Pleasant, Michigan, for their last Will and Testament, in our presence, and we, at their request, and in their presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses.

POWDER PUFF CLUB CONVENES IN CHICAGO

The ninth annual convention of the Powder Puff Club was held in this city during the past week. Many notables were present, among them, Curly Hendershot, big oil magnate, and Frank Rand, Jack Brewster, Emory Johnson, who have made millions in Fish Whiskers, Inc. The meeting was presided over by President John Metheany and Vice-president Harold Powers.

ACROBAT PERFORMS ALMOST IMPOSSIBLE FEAT

Last evening Leo "Speed" McGregor, internationally known acrobat, astounded his audience at the Hippodrome by doing a standing triple front flip. The feat was officially witnessed by Ben Smith, Paul Zier, and Elgie Walton, all members of the American Athletic Association.

NEWEST INVENTION—GLASS WHEELS FOR HORSELESS BUGGIES

A new type of automobile wheel has been invented by Joe Larrance of Detroit. Mr. Epple and Mr. Eckert, officers of the Dixon Automobile Company, issued the following statement: "The Dixon Automobile Co. will soon put on the market a new type of DeLuxe Sedan which will be equipped with the new glass wheels." Mr. Ward Diehl, head of the designing department also says that the new wheels are the finest ever produced.

W. K. P. A. HOLDS LUNCHEON MEETING

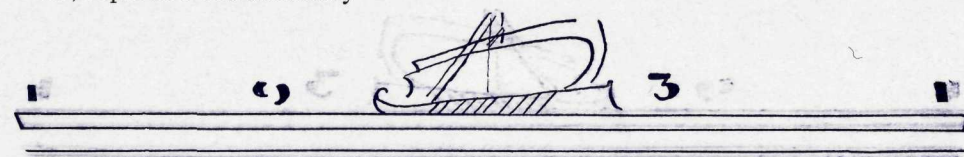

The Women's Kitten Protective Association held its weekly luncheon at the house of Miss Verona Francisco on Friday afternoon to discuss the plans for the proposed Dormitory for Lonesome and Homeless Kittens. Miss Meta Bixby, a leader of the project appointed a committee consisting of Miss V. Markey, Miss B. Marshall, Mrs. Shelton Fray, nee Florence McKnight, and Irene Elder to arrange a color scheme and certain harmonious surroundings which would appeal to the temperamental soul of a cat. Miss C. Tambling and Miss M. Ross reported that there are now 629 1-4 kittens under the Association's protection. To accommodate this overflow, Eva Mae Garber, now Mrs. H. Powers, has generously offered all the facilities of her home to accommodate the kittens during the period of construction. The editors of this paper, Jack Tebble and Harry McShea, think this is a very commendable movement.

NOTED DANCER SAILS FOR PARIS

Madame Gall Kushi, famous silhouette dancer, sailed on the S. S. Submerge at noon today for a few weeks of complete rest and relaxation after a very successful season on Broadway. Her old friends still remember her as Ardath Wille.

BIG ED VAN DYNE COPS WORLD TITLE

The World's Heavyweight Championship Title changed hands again last night when Ed Van Dyne wrested it from "Dynamite" Courter, former holder by a complete K. O. The contest was arranged by Wesley Riches and Cecil Servoss, and Willis Landon and James Harris, the fighters' managers. The match was refereed by Floyd Whaley. A thrilling broadcast of the fight was given under the auspices of the Rand Bros. Radio Co. The announcer was H. Daugherty and those who were not able to follow the battle over the radio were able to read a blow by blow description in the newspapers written by Percy Newcomb and Glee Pitts, reporters extraordinary.

GOVERNMENT OBTAINS VALUABLE MAPS

The two leading government geologists, Dick Swain, and Kenneth Switzer made public today the news that they have succeeded in securing valuable maps from Vol Courtright, expert topographer. These maps are of the bad lands of Isabella County which have hitherto been uncharted.

PLANE DIVES INTO HOUSE

Five persons miraculously escaped injury early last evening when a large transport plane of the Lowery Transport Co. in which they were riding went out of control and crashed into the house of Mrs. J. Metheany, nee Virginia Tice, on the outskirts of Mt. Pleasant, Michigan. It is said that the only thing which saved the pilot and observer of the plane, P. Robinson and H. Knight, and the two passengers, Helen Doud and Marguerite Colby, was the abundance of hot air in the Metheany home which eased the fall.

NOTED EXPLORER FETED AT BANQUET

A beautifully appointed dinner was given in honor of Jack Gibson, noted scientist, upon his return from an extensive research expedition into the wilds of Africa. Mr. Gibson was received by Mayor Dwight Gover. The city band, led by Jerry Williams, was there to do its bit. The distinguishing event of the evening was a talk given by L. C. Wendt, the grand old man of Mt. Pleasant. His subject was "The Road to Fame," and the mistake of loitering and delaying along the halls of learning leading to it.

WORLD ENDURANCE TITLE PERMANENTLY SETTLED

Edith Hutchins, Hazel Black and Josephine Link, internationally famed tree sitters, passed the former record mark at noon today and are still stolidly sitting with no signs of weakening. Credit is also due to Lillian Ash and Lucille Clements who have punctually brought food to the contestants, even during the most severe storms. All the publicity is being handled by Gladys Cupid and Helen Landon, former classmates of the new title holders.

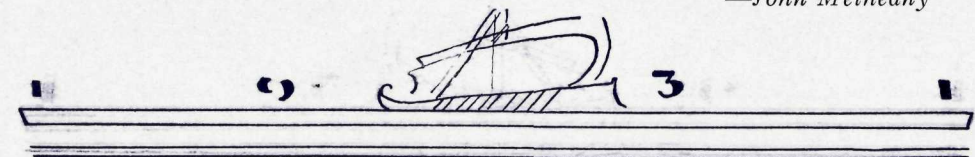

WOMAN CONQUERS CHANNEL

Miss Mildred "Diz" Barnes, famed aquatic star, completed her channel swim last night at 9:52, 10 o'clock American Wristwatch time, after ten hours in the water. She was carried the last fifteen yards by spectators, among them Marvel Warner, Wanda Whitaker and Joe Coughlin, friends since childhood. Miss Barnes' managers, Evelyn Lyon and Gertrude Thompson became greatly agitated over this because they feared that the officials, Marge Turnbull and Erma Trussel, would object. The swimmer was so exhausted that she was not able to pose for the news reels, although the photographers, Leo Leach and E. Weller, pleaded. She was attended by her personal masseurs, Freda Jones and Mary Ellen Whitcomb.

ANNUAL REUNION HELD

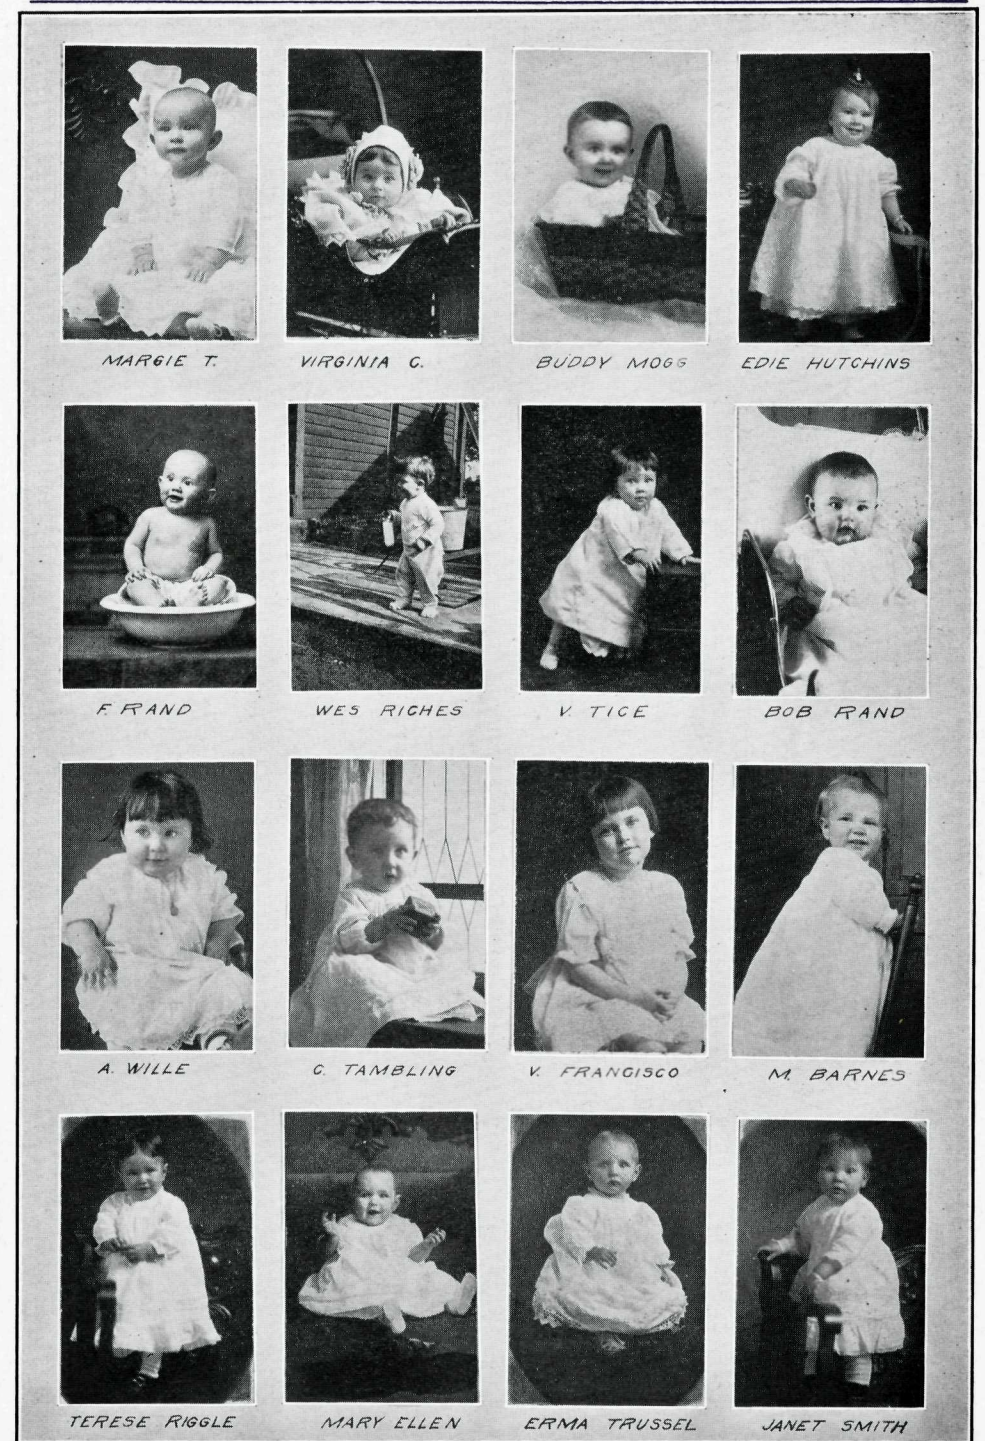

The ninth annual reunion of the members of the women's class of 1931, which was held in Mt. Pleasant this week, was well attended. Virginia Clark, Kathleen Fairchild and Lucile French, who have spent the years educating the natives of Uguenda, were back, as usual, and it is regretted that Bernadine Mogg, Janet Smith and Lenora Winterberg could not be present on account of pressing family matters at their homes. The meeting was presided over and managed by Beatrice Sibly, and her committee of Bessie Wager, Ella Bonebrake, and Margaret Brainerd. Good old Gladys Webster was back and is as jovial as ever.

Juniors

On the day after Labor Day in nineteen hundred and twenty-eight, 110 boys and girls stood ready to enter high school. Their faces beamed, and why not? They were Freshmen and had come with clean faces, clean necks, and clean ears, to be enrolled at Mount Pleasant High School. We were green as all Freshmen were, are, and always will be, but knew that we must have a meeting and organize this large group of boys and girls. We were an unusually large group and an ambitious one, so it was to the advantage of the entire school that we gathered together, had a class meeting, elected members for the various offices and became organized as the class of nineteen hundred and thirty-two. Our officers were Markeith Spalsbury, president Loren Cady, vice-president, King Lewis, secretary and Eugene Johnston, treasurer Mr Reynolds proved to be a most helpful adviser to this newly organized class. During our Freshman year one of our members, King Lewis, made us very proud of him by being the youngest Eagle Scout in America.

Next September we met again with beaming faces, but not because we were scoured clean and Freshmen, but because we were glad to be together again after a summer's vacation. We held a meeting at once and elected the following officers Robert Kennedy, president, Dorothy Shæffer, vice-president, Jean Northway, secretary, and Grace Audlin, treasurer Mr Grambau was our class adviser

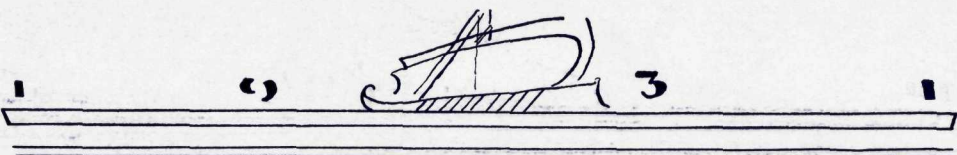

During our Sophomore year we had reason to be proud many times. King Lewis, Eugene Johnston, Jean McClintic, and Ernest Monroe showed themselves to be very promising athletes and all during the season we enjoyed seeing our class so well represented on the basket ball and football teams. Along athletic lines

Mumy, Johnson, Gordon, McClintic, G. Foutch, Martin, Monroe, Lewis
Leach, Jensen, Nolan, Hyde, Mann, E. Lyon, Swindlehurst, B. Foutch, Houghtaling
Hoyt, Ferry, Hooker, A. Lyon, Hawkins, Northway, Müller, Johnston, Hoot
Knight, Fuller, Graham, Hartsell, Gifford, Durfee, Hoyl

we made another step forward when two of our girls, Mildred Hooker and Jean Northway distinguished themselves by receiving varsity M's for athletic accomplishments. Jeannette Houghtaling carried off first honors in the declamation contest and in the operetta, Jane Harris very ably took her part. Thus our class made us a small showing during our Sophomore year

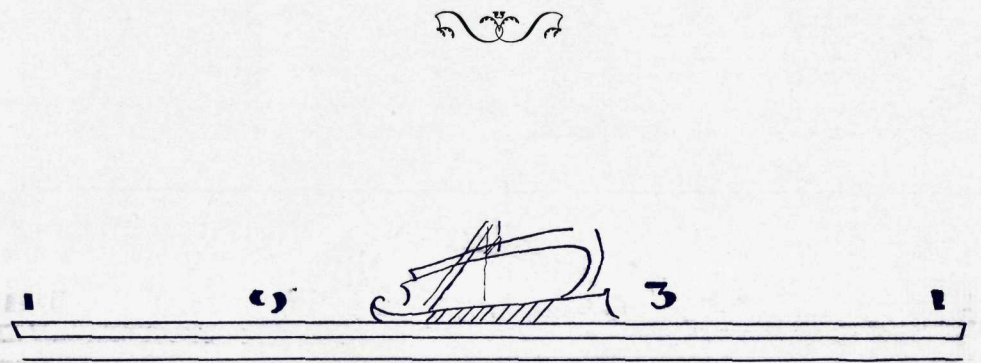

The next fall we entered school with faces still beaming this time we were full of smiles because we were now upper classmen. At our first meeting Dudley Pease was elected president, Jean Northway, vice-president, Jeannette Houghtaling, secretary and Dorothy Hartsell, treasurer. For class adviser, Coach Osborn was chosen. Very early in the year we had a meeting and selected our class rings which gave us a mark of superiority over the lower classmen. As the J-Hop has always been one of the most outstanding social events of the year, we anxiously looked forward with great hopes to our J-Hop. At a class meeting the plans were made, and the date set for the party. The party was to be on the eleventh of April. Also the heads of different committees were named. King Lewis was the chairman of the decorating committee. Jean Benford was responsible for the music. Jane Hawkins furnished refreshments and Mildred Hooker attended to the programs. With such competent committees and the entire class for these people to call on as helpers, we had every reason to believe that our J-Hop would be a most successful event. The grand march was led by the president, Dudley Pease, and Jean Northway. The party was a lovely one, and it was so well planned. The decorations and the refreshments greatly added to the good time enjoyed by all.

Pease, Servoss, Sowders, Turner, Raduchal, McConnell, Whitcomb, Wiley
Walton, Stratton, Strouse, Zingery, Winterberg, Winslow, Riggle, Spalsbury
Strouse, Sweebe, Raymond, Walrath, Rice, G. Smith, Smith, Jarman, Uhl
Struble, Herring, Wager, Welsh, Young, Schertel, Stauffer, Fox

Another feature of our Junior class was the Junior play, "The Patsy," given for the first time by our class. It was planned that the proceeds would be given to the Seniors of next year to be used in publishing the "Zookitizam." The death of Bertha Granger, one of our popular and dearly loved members was deeply regretted by the entire class. During our Junior year many fellows of our class brought much credit to us, by representing us both in football and basketball. A large number of Juniors played on the first team for football. The basketball squad was composed mainly of our class. King Lewis was chosen as captain-elect for the football team next year.

The Juniors feel that their school year was very successful and they are looking forward to their Senior year with great anticipation.

Sophomores

Now it is time to make our second group of entries in our diary. We are all just as enthusiastic about going to high school as we were when we were just little Freshmen. Was it only last year? We know so much more now than we did then. At least we think we do. How green and silly we were.

SEPTEMBER—Well, here we are back at school again. Of course we're glad vacation is over and we see all of our friends once again. There are so many new faces plus all the old ones. We are twice as many as we were last year. My! Look at all the new clothes. How brown every one is! We can hardly tell who our old friends are.

OCTOBER—The first class meeting. Excitement prevails! Just a few more days and we'll know who our new officers are. At last! We chose Louis Woods for our president, Paul Grimm for vice-president, Brooks Emerson, secretary, and Lawrence Hood, treasurer. It looks as though the boys have the majority. They are all very well suited for their office. Miss Weidgenant was elected for class adviser.

NOVEMBER—Every night after school you see the football boys begging rides down to the football field. But our minds aren't always on athletics. We decided we ought to have another class meeting and decide about our class dues. Fifty cents was decided upon. We agreed to pay up before Christmas.

Prissing, Packard, Cliver, Leffingwell, Nolan, MacRae, Powers, Hood, Harper

DECEMBER—Br-r-r-r Having real winter weather Most everyone is getting his red flannels out of the moth balls. Christmas and vacation are just ahead—seems good. We are all writing letters to Santa Claus. We hope he remembers us.

JANUARY—School again. How we love it Santa Claus was very good to us all, and we hope he'll visit us again when we are high and mighty Juniors. Everyone is flashing all his Christmas presents around. We Sophomores surely enjoyed the Athletic Party We hope we can go to another one next year

FEBRUARY The Girl Reserves had their annual informal dancing party We surely enjoyed it. We hope that some day we may have a Sophomore Shuffle, although the date has not been decided upon yet. We are all very proud of Ione Calley who was the only Sophomore whose name appeared on the All "A" scholarship honor roll for the first semester. We hope to see many more names there next semester The Sophomores whose names were on the "A" and "B" scholarship honor roll for the first semester are Frieda Brondstetter, Robert Clark, Neva Gurnsey Katherine Hileman, Lawrence Hood, Raymond Hooker, Maxine Monroe, Thelma Pope, Doris Starkweather and Betty Tambling. Those names appearing on the "A," "B," and "C" scholarship honor roll for the first semester are Edgar Bixby, Mable Dent, Brooks Emerson, Ethel Isbell, Irene Russell, Elnore Simmons, Marjorie Webster, and Helen Hagerman.

MARCH—Vacation is just around the corner What can we do with a whole week? M-m-m-m. The Sophomores whose names appeared on the "A" Citizenship honor roll for the first semester are Edward Bonnell, Maxine Monroe, and Doris Starkweather Those Sophomores' names that appeared on the "A" and "B" Citizenship honor roll are Zelphmæ Axtell, Lillian Bickell, Laura Bitler, Edgar Bixby, Frieda Brondstetter, Mary Burt, Ione Calley, George Chamberlain, Mac Childs, Robert Clark, Mabel Dent, Marcia Dusenbury, Brooks Emerson, Luella Fennell, Paul Grimm, Betty Gruette, Neva Gurnsey, Helen Hagerman, Katherine Hileman, Lawrence Hood, Raymond Hooker, Ethel Isbell, Arthur Johnson, Shirley Koyl, Floyd Leffingwell, Edna Ludwig, Boynton MacRae, Bertha Mogg, Donald McKillip, Winifred McMillan, Delbert Nolan, Donald Oliver, Thelma Pope, Arthur Powers, Arnold Prissing, Aaron Prout, Harold Prout, Betty Russell, Elnora Simmons, Eleanor Smith, Winifred Smith, Ruth Snellenberger, Thora Stahlman, Agnes Stalter, Betty Tambling, Marjorie Webster and Howard Wendt.

APRIL—Everyone is donning the new spring outfits in spite of the cold weather We had our Sophomore annual party It was one of the outstanding parties of the year

MAY—Spring! More on the consultation list. I wonder why?

JUNE—Well, everyone is turning over a new leaf. Why? Semester exams. We all heave a sigh of relief because they are over for this year School is over Listen to all the sad good-byes! Oh yeah! Until next year when we return as Juniors. We all enjoyed our picnic very much. It makes a very nice closing of our year as Sophomores.

Freshmen

At last we have entered high school! Even though we're just Freshmen we have four whole years ahead of us. Life is just opening for us with interesting school work and companionships. Of course there will be college after these school days are over, but these are the golden days to be remembered and treasured deep in our hearts.

On the second day of September nineteen hundred and thirty-one, there were about one hundred and nineteen green Freshmen who assembled around the building. For about two weeks all was uncertainty. We were running about hither and thither up and down the stairs and through the halls trying to remember what subject came next and where the room was. The upper class men were very kind to us when we were bold enough to ask them for desired and much needed information.

After school had started and we were all arranged as to rooms and subjects, an announcement was read that the Freshmen were all to meet at three-thirty in the Junior study hall. There were questions in our minds as to what would happen at three-thirty. When we met, however, to our relief, it was our first class meeting. It was held for the sole purpose of organizing the Freshman class and of electing officers. We chose Mr. Grambau for our class adviser. Harriet Schepper became our president, Robert Pfetsch was elected vice-president, Jesse Chingman was given the office of secretary, and Jane Bonnell was made treasurer.

We have among our Freshman group, a fellow who entered our class after finishing his course at the United States Indian Reservation. He proved to be of excellent quality for our football team. About Thanksgiving time Jesse Chingman was badly hurt in an auto accident, and he was out of school for some time as a result. While he was absent Eleanor Oberg was chosen as co-secretary.

Another time there was the summons for a class meeting. That time we tramped into the well known study hall with less timidity and fear, than previously. We were beginning to outgrow our first greenness. The meeting, of course, was to decide about having a class party. Everyone was unanimously in favor of the idea. Who wouldn't be? The date of the party proved to be February 13, 1931. St. Valentine's birthday. The committee for refreshments were as follows: Jane Bonnell, chairman, with Marian Turnbull, Eleanor Oberg, Homer Robinson, and Mark Chamberlain working with her. The entertainment committee consisted of chairman, Lois Brew, and with her, James Kennedy, David Harris, Emily Archer and Paul Spenser. The party was to be held in the high school gymnasium. The games were very interesting and the refreshments, of course, were very excellent. The party was a wonderful success, and the majority of the Freshmen were there to participate, and as Mr. Grambau expressed it, "the Freshmen had some party. They sure had a grand time."

The Freshmen have also made a place for themselves in the field of sports. The girls were quite successful in athletics as they won the volley ball tournament, and in the end finally defeated the Senior class girls. Many of the boys either played on the Middleweight or Heavyweight basketball teams coached by Mr.

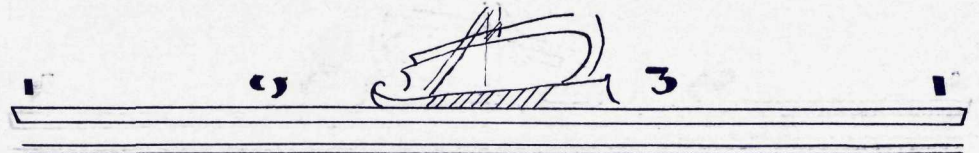

R. Pitts, Sponsellor, Pfetsch, Nolan, Staley, F. Graham, Underdown, Schugbach, Walker, Warner

Benson. Homer Robinson played forward, and was always a threat. Chester Johnson, center, was scoring leader for the season. Donald Stinson, regular guard, was very valuable in advancing the ball down the floor. Jim Kennedy, when he joined the team late in the season, played guard. Jeff Spalsbury played two fine games at center. The above mentioned boys played on the Middleweight team. The Heavyweights were as follows: Jim Murphy and Thatcher were the guards who did themselves justice in advancing the ball down the floor and repelling advance on the basket. Detweiler was a steady, consistent center who was almost sure to get the tip-off. Ray Trussell and Neal Grinnell were a pair of flashy forwards who worked well together. Mark Chamberlain and Billy Johnston also gave fine accounts of themselves when in the game. Jesse Chingman played on the first team of the high school in football, but on account of the accident he could not go out for basketball.

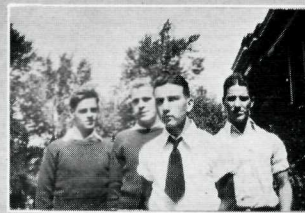

We do as a Freshman class, sincerely thank Mr. Grambau for leading us through so successful a school year as this last has proved to be. And now, that the Freshman year has receded into the past, we look forward to our Sophomore year as being full of activities, work and fun. The Freshman class hopes to carry on the good work and advance more in the coming years—to add honors and glory to the graduating class of nineteen hundred and thirty-four.

Eighth Grade

The enrollment of the eighth grade last year was exceedingly large. There were some fifty-seven students enrolled. Although the eighth grade had no organization they held their class party toward the first of the month of May, and enjoyed their picnic the latter part of the same month. The party and the picnic proved to be among the several events that students looked forward to. The students of the eighth grade with Mr Knight as their adviser, earned the money for the "ZOOK" pictures, their party, and their picnic by selling candy. Enough money was earned to cover all the expenses.

Many of the boys in the eighth grade played on either the Midget, Middleweight or Heavyweight team. All these games were played, one in each weight division, on Saturday mornings, with Mr Benson in charge. Oscar Schmidt was captain and the mainstay of the Midgets until advanced to the Middleweights, in view of his fine playing. Then Oscar was guard and a good one. Frank Northway played, finishing the season as forward. Clifford Luce gave a good account of himself when he was in the lineup. Billy Raymond played forward and his loss was keenly felt in the play-off game. He played on the Middleweight team. Bob Johnston also showed to good advantage as guard. Armon Hagerman gave a fine account of himself when in the game. Hagerman was one of the Heavyweights. The Midgets broke even—winning three games and losing three.

Seventh Grade

The seventh grade last year has been the largest in the history of the Junior High — larger even than the eighth grade. The enrollment was some seventy-three students. The class under the leadership of Miss Murtha had candy sales to cover all expenses incurred by their "ZOOK" pictures, their party and picnic. All the students looked forward to these annual good times, and greatly enjoyed them. Their party was held shortly after Easter vacation. Their picnic was held a little later in the season near the first of May. The seventh grade, after the first semester, lost many of their fellow classmates, who had moved away from Mount Pleasant.

SPORTS

Some seventh graders represented their class by playing on the Midget basketball team. One member of the class played on the Middleweight team. Dick Johnston was the Middleweight player. Bruce Hawes developed fast, stepping into the shoes of his brother at center. Lester Struble finished the season as a forward. Bus Warner was sure to give a good account of himself while he was in the line-up. Dick Johnston showed himself to good advantage, playing forward. All games were played, one in each weight division, on Saturday mornings, with Mr. Benson in charge. The Midgets broke even, winning and losing three games. So all in all the seventh grade contributed much in the field of athletics as well as in the field of knowledge.

Girl Scouts

The following officers were elected for the Girl Scouts at their first meeting in September Jane Hawkins, president Marcia Dusenbury, vice-president, Freida Brondstetter, treasurer, Margaret Brainerd, secretary

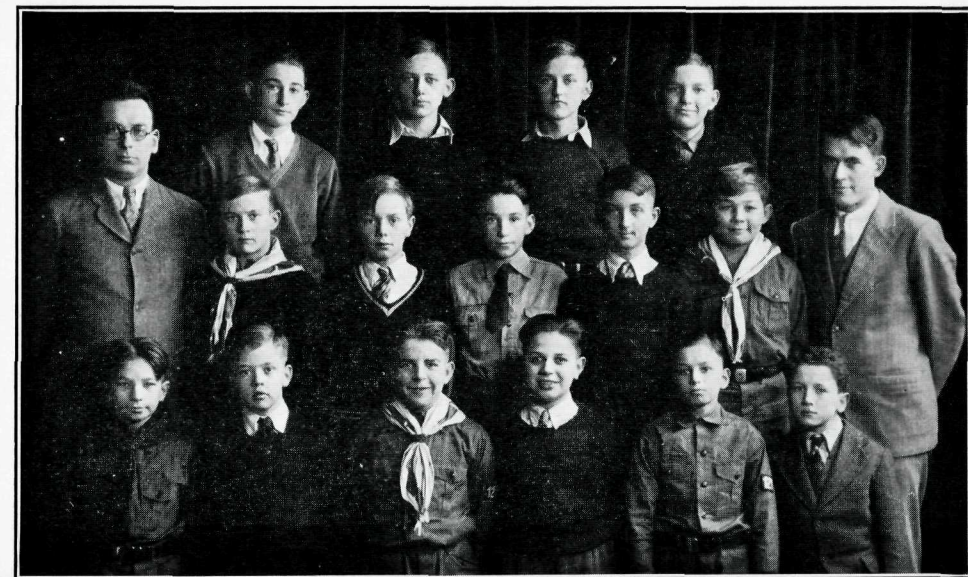

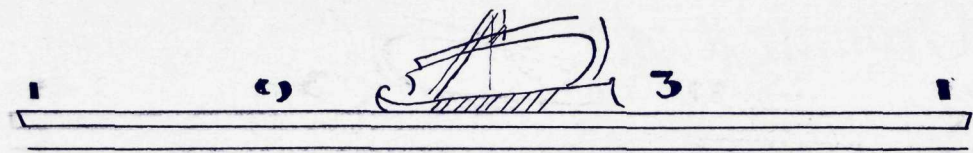

Last year, Mrs. Dusenbury, Mr Chase, Mr Voisin, Mrs. Johnson, and Mrs. P. G. Lantz were chosen on community committee. This committee has charge of all the Girl Scout troops in this area.

There are in Mount Pleasant, three Girl Scout troops, consisting of eighty members. The High School troop had thirty-six members. The troop was divided into four patrols. Patrol No. 1 had as patrol leader, Barbara Carroll, and Jane Bonnell as corporal. Patrol No. 2 had Helen Hagerman for patrol leader and Lois Brew corporal. Helen Marshall was patrol leader and Lucile Dickenson was corporal for Patrol No. 3. Patrol No. 4 was made up of new members.

For Christmas the Girl Scouts dressed a doll to send to a little girl at Otter Lake. The little girl was living at the Children's Billet. Each child wrote a letter to Santa Claus. These letters were sent to the different American Legion associations. The Legion fixed up a cab for the doll.

At our meetings we played games and studied. Some nights we played basketball, other times we studied for tests or badges. One group was studying First Aid, and another group was taking to Signaling. Many girls decided to take up Archery to earn one of their badges. We hope to have many First Class Scouts before long.

Boy Scouts

Scouting in Mount Pleasant has grown considerably in the past year. Several new Boy Scout troops, and Cub Scout troops have been organized. Scouting is an organization in which every boy of the age of twelve should belong.

The Boy Scout troop of the Mount Pleasant High School started another successful year of Scouting at the opening of school in September. This troop was under the leadership of Mr. Knight who had Mr. Conklin as his assistant.

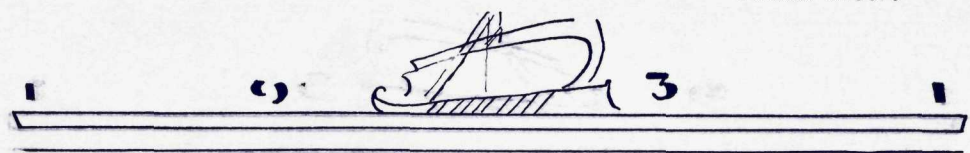

Very much progress has been made during this past year in which several new Scouts have started at the bottom and worked up along with the older ones still climbing in the ranks of Scouting.

Several Scouts from our local troop attended Camp Rotary which is located at Beebe Lake near Clare, Michigan. This camp is sponsored by the Saginaw Area in which all troops of Mount Pleasant belong. Scouts of Mount Pleasant were only given the privilege of attending this camp in 1929 when local business men raised about $750.00 which was turned over to the Saginaw Area Council and made Mount Pleasant a member of it.

Rev. Mackenzie, pastor of the local First Methodist Church, took over the leadership of the Sea Scoutship which has just gotten under way in this city.

One of the outstanding events in a Boy Scout's life is the annual Scout camp. Here the boys thoroughly enjoy the all-round good fun, and work diligently to pass tests and earn merit badges. The Sea Scouts however, planned a cruise on the Great Lakes. As a trip of that kind had never been undertaken before, the boys greatly anticipated and enjoyed the cruise.

Girl Reserves

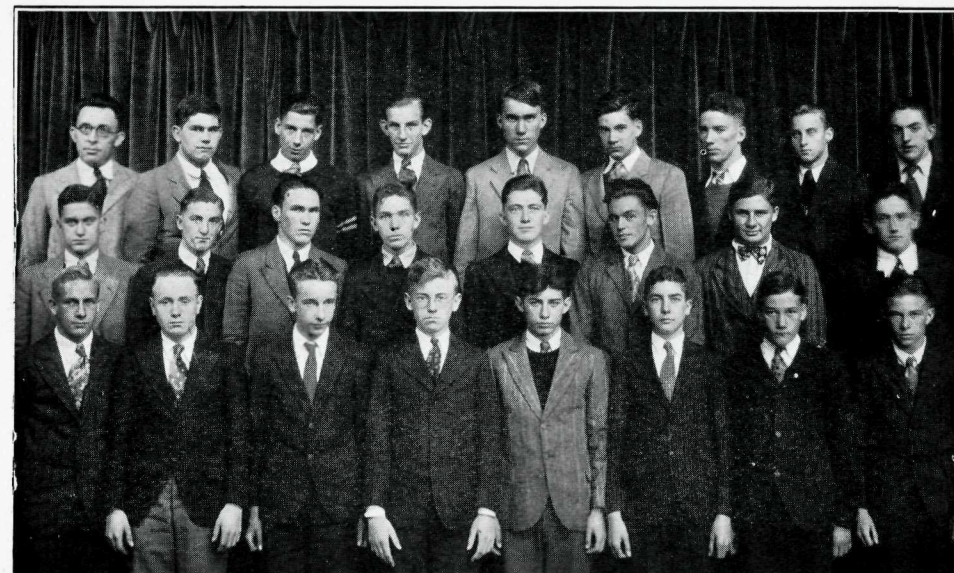

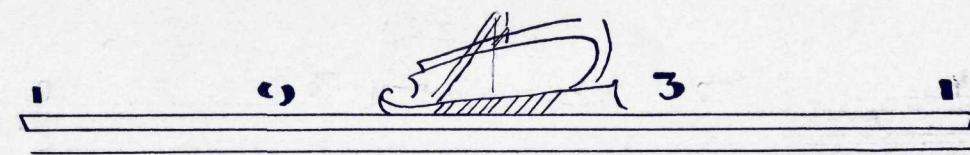

The organization of the Girl Reserves has had a very successful year. Many new girls became interested in the Girl Reserve work. The officers of the year were Meta Bixby, president; Erma Trussell, vice-president; Mildred Hooker, secretary; and Lenora Winterberg, treasurer. The chief adviser was Miss Florence Cowles, the town adviser, Mrs. Edith Dusenbury.

A new plan was worked out this last year—that was to divide the girls into work-shop groups. The four groups were Sewing, Dramatics, Handicraft, and Music and Art. The plan was very successful and an interesting one for all the girls. The work-shop advisers were as follows: Handicraft, Miss Kerns; Music and Art, Miss Houg; Dramatics, Mrs. Edith Dusenbury; and Fancy Sewing, Miss Cowles.

Among the many things the organization has accomplished, the charity work is the most outstanding. At Thanksgiving, several families were furnished with supplies—food and clothing. For Christmas time the girls gladdened the hearts of two families by sending gifts to their children.

The Girl Reserves have sponsored the Friday night dances which were very successful because many more of the students entered into the high school activities. The Girl Reserve informal dancing party was given on February 7th, and proved to be a big event of the year. The Co-ed Prom, eagerly looked forward to by all high school girls, was given in the early spring, and the party certainly was enjoyed by all the girls.

The Hi-Y Club had a very successful year which started with school in the fall, and continued throughout the school year.

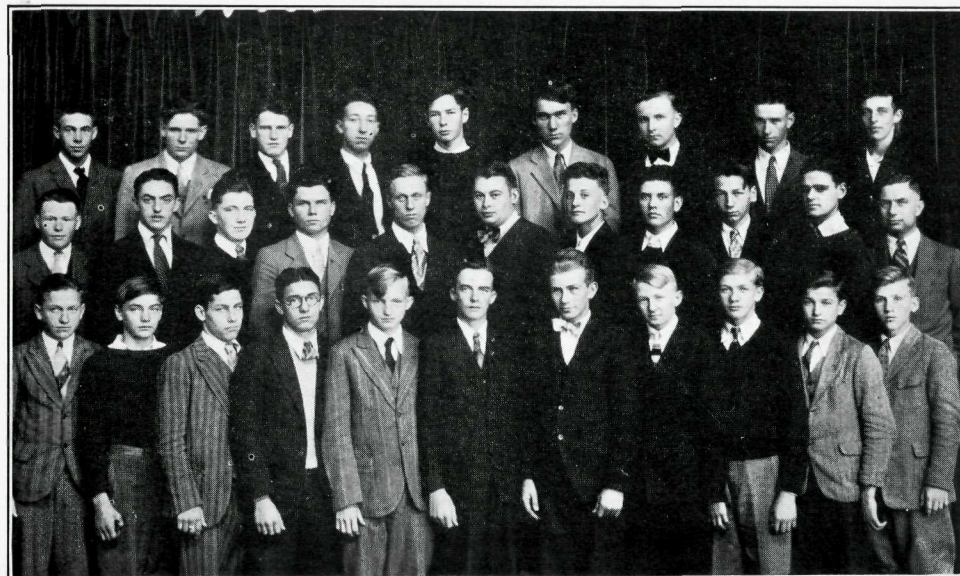

The president represented the club at the Hi-Y Training Conference. This conference is held annually at Camp Hayo-Went-Ha which is located on Torch Lake. The purpose of the conference is to train the new officers in the means of producing more successful Hi-Y Clubs.

The club's program for the year was planned with the idea of making the meetings just as interesting and helpful as possible. The meetings were led by members, and by an increased number of outside speakers from the college faculty, ministers and business men of the city. Due to these fine programs and the fine spirit of fellowship which prevailed throughout the year, the membership of the club was increased a great deal.

The club sent its full quota to the annual State Older Boys' Conference which was held in Bay City on the 28th, 29th, and 30th of November. The fellows earned their way to the conference and were well repaid for their efforts. The conference was attended by twelve hundred Lower Peninsula boys. Among the fine group of speakers was Governor Wilber M. Brucker.

The club's biennial Father and Son Banquet was held February 24th at the College cafeteria.

In preparation for the State Judging Contest, our Ag Club has been doing a lot of practical work in judging cattle, horses, and sheep this year. We have visited a fine herd of registered Ayrshire cows on the Balmoral farm near Ithaca. Besides this farm we have studied the registered Holsteins, a large herd of Jersey cattle owned by the Ross brothers, who live near Remus, the Keller herd of Brown Swiss, House's herd of Herefords, and his son's flock of Suffolk sheep.

The Ag Club had a good grain judging team last year. Our fair was a great success and the entries were of high quality, considering the poor season. During the fair we had as a visitor E. E. Gallup, State Supervisor of Agricultural Education.

Our club has been a means of good wholesome entertainment and has prepared us to be future farmers. The meetings have been well attended. We had talks on farming in Canada, farming in California, and farming in Europe. All of our meetings were followed by helpful discussions.

This year the orchestra can truly say it has gained progress. Under the direction of Mr. Long new ambitions were aroused. The orchestra has made many successful public appearances. The string section accompanied the Christmas cantata. In February the operetta was presented and the orchestra played for it also. Then too, the orchestra furnished the music for the Senior play and likewise for the Junior play.—Jeannette Houghtaling.

Band

The Mount Pleasant High School mixed band has made some wonderful progress in the past year. The band was organized by Clarence Kelley, of the college, about the middle of the first semester in 1928. The next fall the band continued its work under the leadership of Newell Long. Mr. Long was also band master at the college, and he has shown wonderful interest in our band.

The band uniforms were also obtained during the past year. The uniforms have improved our band considerably in appearance. They consist of caps and capes for the boys, and berets and capes for the girls. The uniforms came to a total cost of $408.00. The sum of $92.53 was taken from the band fund. The balance was advanced by the Board of Education. To pay off this balance, the teachers of various schools in the city, gave card parties. Three of these parties have been given and approximately $70.00 was taken in. After the parties are all given, the proceeds will be used for more uniforms, band instruments, or music.

The band marched to several football games and played for many high school activities during the season. They also played at several of the home games in basket ball. The presence of the band at these games aroused enthusiasm and school spirit among the townsfolk. Much credit is due Mr. Long for the time he has spent in making the band successful.

Girls' Glee Club

The Girls' Glee Club was organized at the beginning of the year, with Florence McKnight as president and Virginia Tice as secretary.

This year the fourth period on Mondays and Fridays was taken for the practice period by the Girls' Glee Club. Practicing during school hours made it more convenient than after school, and we were able to co-operate much more successfully. We worked up a large number of songs and sang several times in chapel.

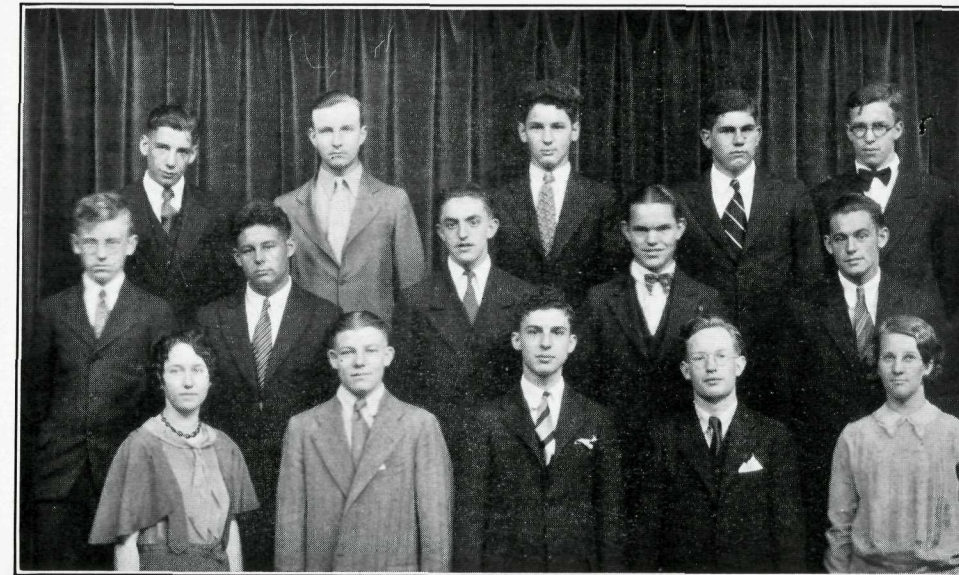

In the Christmas cantata presented by the grade schools of Mount Pleasant, the Girls' Glee Club co-operated by singing the opening and closing songs. The cantata was given once in chapel and once in the afternoon for the parents and friends.

In the annual operetta, "Jerry of Jericho Road," the Glee Club furnished the cast and chorus. Florence McKnight took the lead of Jerry, Thelma Pope the part of Sandy, Meta Bixby the part of Lettice, Jeannette Houghtaling the part of Doras, and Jane Hawkins the part of Mimi. The snappy songs and the Glee Club girls in the dancing chorus added much to the merit of production.

The Girls' Glee Club entered the District Music contest at the college as in previous years, and came back with due credit. The club planned to participate in the Senior Day commencement, as a mixed chorus.

Much honor and credit is due Miss Houg, our new instructor. The success of the operetta and the Christmas cantata was only accomplished by Miss Houg's instruction.

Boys' Glee Club

The Boys' Glee Club has shown unusual progress throughout the whole year. About thirty fellows turned out in answer to the call for candidates for glee club. Twelve boys were chosen from the enthusiastic group. Donald Carr, Edward Van Dyne, Harold Daugherty, Lowayne Hendershott, Harry McShea, Robert Rand, Dudley Pease, Frank Whaley, Charles Whitcomb, Worth Wiley, Jerry Williams and Robert Collin were the boys who qualified. From this group Jerry Williams and Harry McShea were given leading roles in the operetta. Harry McShea was the business manager. The Glee Club sang "The Bells of St. Mary's," and "The School Song" before High School Assembly. With special arrangement with the band they sang the High School song in chapel. The Boys' Glee Club also appeared before the County Institute, when they sang "Kentucky Babe" and the "Shadow March." This group of boys entered the Music contest at the college, and came back with due credit to their High School.

Special credit is due Miss Houg for the work she has done in the Glee Club and operetta this year. Jean Benford also deserves much credit for her faithful work as the accompanist.

First Tenor, Jerry Williams. Second Tenor, Frank Whaley, Charles Whitcomb, Robert Collin, Baritone, Harold Daugherty, Lowayne Hendershott, Harry McShea, Bass, Edward Van Dyne, Robert Rand, Dudley Pease, Worth Wiley.

It is hoped that the club work will be carried on even more successfully next year.

The plot centers around the efforts of the Barton family to get somewhere in the world despite the handicap of their surroundings, which is Hollywood. Willie Barton, the "fool of the family," has ambitions as a director, but he is extremely unpopular around the house because of his apparent laziness. His good-natured, unlettered mother occasionally takes his side. Sister Helen is married to Robert Bent who wants to invest in a nut farm. His plans were upset by his wife's vanity, and the wily Hamilton T. Holland. Holland is president of a fake movie company which specializes in separating people like Helen and Bob from their cash. He convinces Helen she looks like Gloria Swanson, and Bob should sink his money into making a picture starring Helen. Willie, however, knows Holland for what he is. Love interest has been injected in the play by Willie's affair with Agatha Sliscomb, daughter of Ezra Sliscomb, a neighbor who is a retired Iowan farmer. Of course, everything ends well. Willie makes everything turn out all right.

Although riotous in a great many places, "The Nut Farm" also has its pathos, depth of emotion and drama that raise it above the level of mere comedy.

Amos Bank	Donald Mills	Director	Miss Houg

The story takes place on a western ranch, owned by Alan O'Day, whom Sandy Bank has rejected because of her mother, Lettice Bank, who has openly desired him as a son-in-law purely from a material standpoint.

The three Banks camp on the land adjoining Alan's camp. Their camping ground turns out to be an oil land owned by Geraldine Bank, Sandy's cousin. John Drayton, wishing to buy Jerry's land hires the detective, Hunter, to find her, but Mimi and Dora find her first. Various complications arrived, finally settling satisfactorily, with the double marriage or engagement of Jerry and John, and Sandy and Alan.

The play was a huge success attributed, by the cast, to Miss Houg's sympathetic direction.

Debating

Although none of the debaters had ever had any previous debating experience, the members of the Mount Pleasant High School team left an enviable record for next year's team. Only two contests out of five were lost—the opener, and the last. The debates won and lost were as follows

Big Rapids 2	Mt. Pleasant 1	Breckenridge 0—Mt. Pleasant 3
Midland 1	— Mt. Pleasant 2	Greenville 0 — Mt. Pleasant 3
	Ionia 2 —	Mt. Pleasant 1

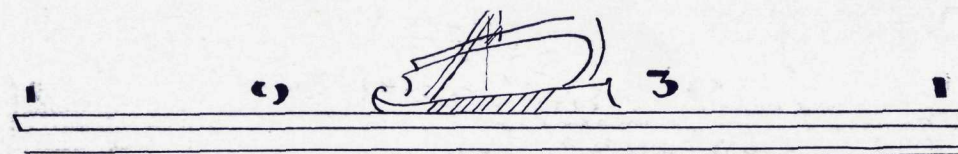

By winning the second, third, and fourth debates, and with the addition of the one point gained in the first contest, the team was able to place in the elimination contest, and drew Ionia in the first contest, from which Ionia emerged victorious.

This is the second year of debating for Mt. Pleasant High School, and the team, under the able direction of Miss McComb, acquitted themselves well by gaining the elimination contest.

The members of the team for the first debate were Virginia Clark, Margaret Brainerd and Harold Daugherty. In the subsequent debates Robert Gordon displaced Margaret Brainerd.

Interest in debating ran high this year, twelve students trying for places on the squad. Eight were picked by Miss McComb, from which the team was to be chosen. The squad was composed of Virginia Clark, Margaret Brainerd, Richard Demlow, Harold Daugherty, Robert Gordon, Gene Fee Brail, Harry McShea, Wanda Whitaker, and Florence McKnight.

1930 Football Season

COACH OSBORN

In reviewing the past season of football and basket ball one must think of the person behind it all, the one man responsible for two successful years, Coach Osborn. Coach Osborn came to Mt. Pleasant High School in the fall of 1929 to take over the coaching reins. He took a team, which in the previous season had failed to win a game, and moulded it into a smooth-working machine which received state-wide recognition for being undefeated in its class. With many returning veterans he fashioned a basket ball team which won seventeen consecutive victories, through season and tournament games until the state tournament.

At the beginning of the 1930 football season, with only the second team returning from the 1929 squad, Coach Osborn proved his mettle by working up a team which tied two sectional championship teams and lost but four closely fought games and won three by wide margins.

Making his second team of the 1929 basket ball squad into his first team of 1930, he produced a fighting team which lost but three season games and fought its way to the regional finals.

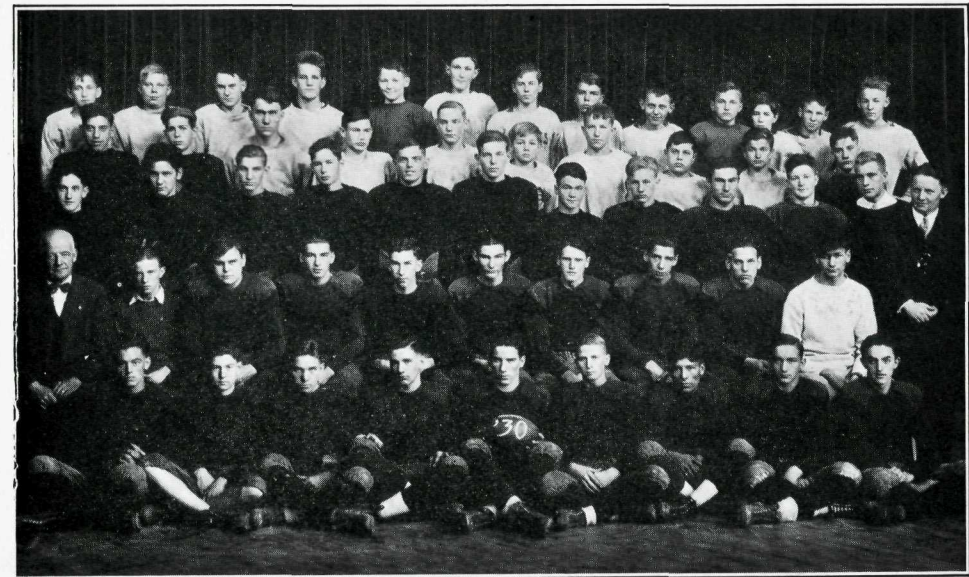

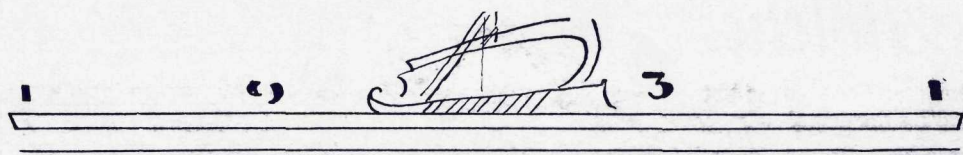

A coach who can accomplish so much from so little, who can obtain the confidence of his boys, and obtain every ounce of fight from them, deserves to be praised for his work.

LOWELL-26—MT PLEASANT 0

An entirely new team playing its first game, Mt. Pleasant lost by the biggest score in its season. Lowell's veteran team with a speedy backfield had no trouble in outplaying her weaker rivals. Coach Osborn freely substituted, to give as many as possible a chance to gain experience.

CADILLAC-7—MT PLEASANT 7

The next game with the undefeated team from the North and Northern State Champions proved to be an upset in the highest degree. Apparently outclassed (according to Cadillac papers) and greatly outweighed, Mt. Pleasant sent the Vikings of the North home with nothing better than a tie. Cadillac resorted to passing for its first quarter touchdown. Mt. Pleasant quickly retaliated and rushed across the goal on a well executed trick play. The game was even the rest of the half. A fourth quarter drive nearly proved good, but Cadillac held and from that point crashed down to the Mt. Pleasant eight-yard line. With a few minutes to go, the team held and staved off defeat.

LANSING CENTRAL-25—MT PLEASANT-6

Encouraged by the Cadillac game the pigskin toters journey to Lansing to match wares with the Big Reds of Lansing Central. Fighting the Big Reds on even terms throughout the half, the Yellow and Blue warriors rested at the intermission with a six-point deficit, the score being 12-6 for Lansing Central. The heavier Reds pushed across the goal for two more touchdowns during the second half, while Mt. Pleasant's frequent drives through the Lansing line availed nothing in the matter of scores.

BIG RAPIDS-13—MT. PLEASANT-7

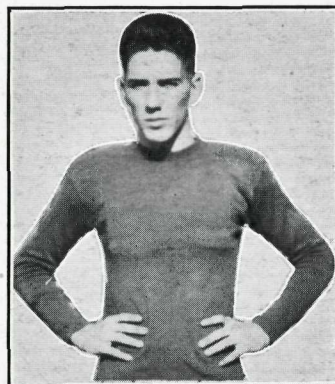

The better team lost to the strong Big Rapids team by six points. The tale in a few words was the failure to make good on scoring chances and the failure to stop the Rapids boys' passing attack. Greatly outgaining the Big Rapids team in the first half, Mt. Pleasant did not bring the scores as touchdown drives fell short of the final marker. The Yellow and Blue warriors' only tally came late in the second half, ending a spirited touchdown drive. The gun sounded shortly after

CARO-0

M. P. H. S.-15

On a cold October day, with gray skies and intermittent snow flurries, the gridiron men won their first football victory. Smoothly working, Coach Osborn's new offense gained at will through the Thumb Champions' line.

CAPTAIN ROBINSON

ALMA-6—MT PLEASANT-0

Meeting her age-old rivals at the Republic City, Mt. Pleasant went down to glorious defeat at the hands of the Almanians. A blocked punt early in the game spelled defeat for the local team. One drive on the part of Mt. Pleasant bit deeply and came close to the tying touchdown but the Alma line stiffened and held.

REED CITY-0—MT PLEASANT-26

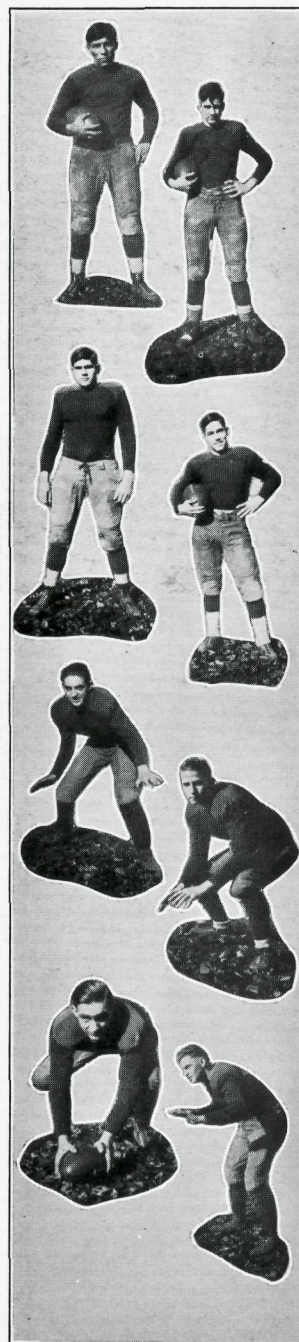

With the colorful attack of the Caro game the team smashed its way to a win over Reed City. The first half ended scoreless, but entering the second half with renewed vigor, the hard-running backfield soon cracked Reed City for a touchdown. Gathering momentum as the half progressed, the steam roller gained three more touchdowns.

ACADEMY-0—MT PLEASANT-45

Fighting back after the Academy had driven to the 20-yard line, the blue-shirted boys severely crushed the red-shirted boys. Chingman's sensational 80-yard run in the first period started the fireworks. Although fighting back, the lighter Academy team could not stop the superior High School team.

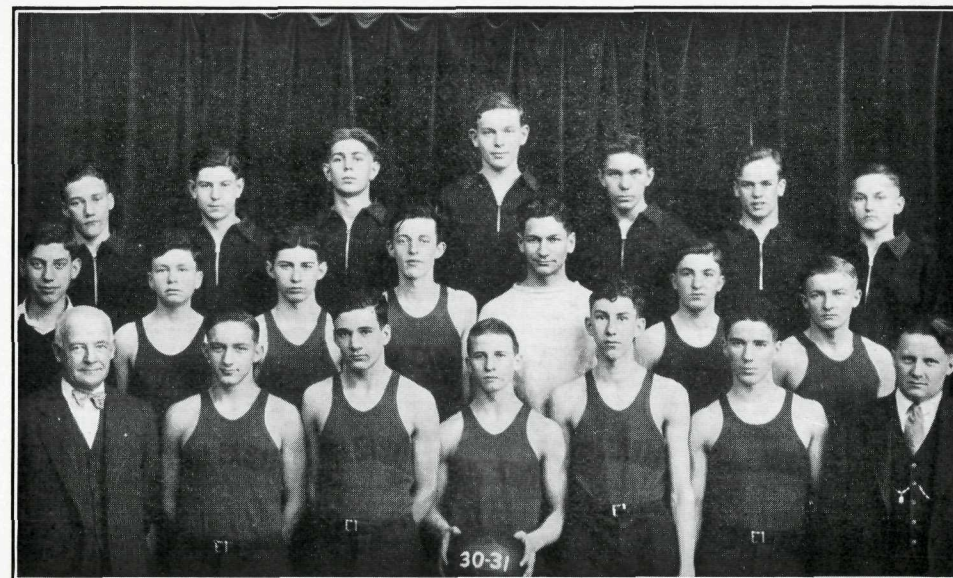

MIDLAND-6—MT PLEASANT-6

The final game with the undefeated Midland team proved to be a thriller. Midland sneaked over for a touchdown after a drive early in the first quarter, but failed at the try for point. With its "never give up" spirit, the Osborn team retaliated with a touchdown in the second period. The second half produced no points. Captain Robinson, Crampton, Van Dyne, Whaley, Pitts, Bob Rand and Chingman played their last football in Yellow and Blue uniforms.

Basketball

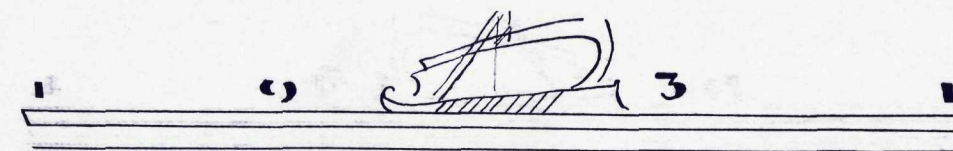

With the reserve team of 1929 and 1930 filling the shoes of the graduated varsity the Mt. Pleasant High School basketball team handily took Grant and Evart down the line with scores of 30-14, and 24-13. A fast working team was promised for the future.

With but two weeks of practice the Osbornites went down to defeat at the hands of the veteran Midland quintet. A tight defensive game ended 11-6 for the Chemical City. In defeating Coach Bauer's Redskins 21-11 the Yellow and Blue hoop tossers showed real class. The Indian team was without veterans also. The Sacred Heart basketball team, attempting revenge for the football defeat, forced the high quintet to a battle royal, but lost to the superior team 22-12.

Although leading at the half, 8-6, Mt. Pleasant lost to her dear old rivals in a nip and tuck ball game. Alma emerged on the long end of a 15-13 count. Mt. Pleasant's sharp shooters played their greatest comeback of the season by overcoming Caro's six-point lead at the half and her five-point lead at the third quarter to sneak away with a 20-17 victory.

Mt. Pleasant got revenge for her football defeat by sending the Big Rapids team to the showers on the short end of a 20-17 score. No team led by more than three points during the entire game.

Mt. Pleasant played one of its best games in defeating Reed City on her home floor. The shooting eyes clicked perfectly and the Yellow and Blue team came home with a 27-13 scalp on its belt. Expecting an easy victory with Ionia the local team won only by tying up the game in the last few minutes of play and winning the game in the extra period. The score was 18-16.

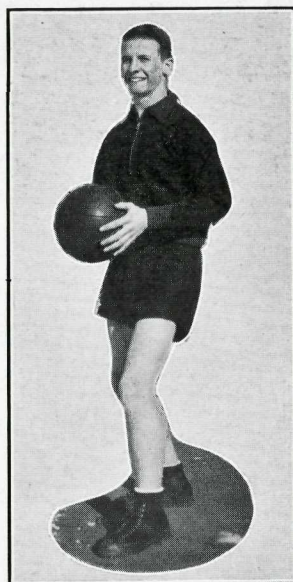

Greenville, having previously defeated both Midland and Alma, was defeated on the local floor in a fast game. Mt. Pleasant broke loose in the last few minutes to win 21-15. Playing a high class Alumni team the locals showed real power for the early season, and defeated the graduates by a 14-13 score. The score at the half was 9-0, with last year's regional champs on the short end.

The second game with the Indians proved to be a closely fought affair. Trailing at the third quarter 11-10, the Yellow and Blue fighters pulled the game out of the fire in the closing quarter to win 16-13. The return game with Alma, which decided the conference championship was hotly contested to the final gun. Trailing the entire game, Mt. Pleasant played brilliant ball in the field, but gloomy ball at the foul line and she walked from the floor with an 18-17 defeat.

Determining to get revenge for the early season defeat at the hands of Midland, Mt. Pleasant outplayed her neighbors in all phases of the game to close the season with a 27-18 victory.

Playing the Indians in the District Tournament finals, Mt. Pleasant showed her superiority over the Indian School lads by decisively overwhelming them 30-11. The locals led with points to spare, the entire game. In the first round of the Regional Tournament, Mt. Pleasant drew the fast St. Johns outfit. Playing a good passing game, the local hoopsters managed to keep ahead and finally emerged with the victory in the pot. The score at the final gun was 20-16.

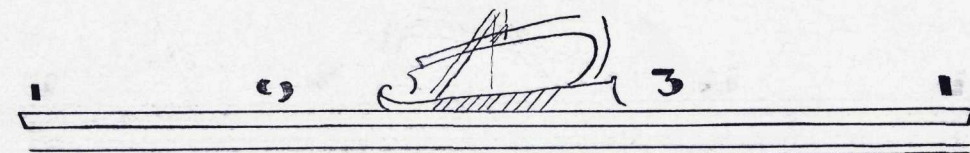

Meeting Alma in the finals, Mt. Pleasant's determination to win the decision fell short by five points. Alma held the upper hand throughout and, but for the locals' superior fight the game was closely contested. An 18-13 defeat, at the hands of her old rivals, was a bitter pill to swallow. Capt. Crampton and Robinson played their last game for the Yellow and Blue.

CAPTAIN CRAMPTON

Intramural Basketball

This year was the highest in Intramural basketball, with six competing teams which were as follows: Faculty, Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores, Freshmen and Varsity reserves. Each team played every one of the other five teams. Large crowds attended the after-school games with much enthusiasm. There were several overtime games which showed that the teams were evenly matched. The highlight game of the league was the championship game between the Seniors and Faculty, as neither had lost a game. A fast, exciting and exceedingly rough game ended with the Faculty on the long end of a 15-8 score. The rest of the teams placing in the order mentioned were Juniors, Varsity reserves, Sophomores and Freshmen. From rumored reports we learned that a seventh intramural team will be introduced next year as the Janitor's team which will lend much competition. This intramural program gives a chance for more boys to compete in athletics and it produces material for future teams.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association was organized last year to increase the interest in Physical Education and in inter-class sports. Mildred Hooker was chosen president, because she had earned the highest number of points. Jean Northway, vice-president, Meta Bixby, secretary, and Marvel Warner, treasurer. Any girl in High School may be a member if she earns 200 points and attends a physical education class one year. A pin is given for 800 points, a gold script letter is given for 400 points earned from the following:

1. Physical Education classes in attendance, grade, and dress habits.
2. Scholarship in academic work.
3. Leadership in girl activities of the school.
4. Individual physical efficiency including, dancing, swimming, gymnastics, and game technique.
5. Sports, including soccer, field ball, volley ball, basketball and baseball.
6. Individual sports including archery, quoits, bowling, canoeing, hiking, horse back riding, tennis and ice skating.

The following girls received "M's" for having earned the required number of points: Mildred Hooker, Jean Northway, Meta Bixby, Marvel Warner, Mildred Barnes, and Luella Kohler.

Track

With many stars of last year's track team lacking, the track prospect did not seem bright. With Captain Brewster, Swain, Servoss and Van Dyne in the sprints, the team does not lack in this respect. With no sure point winners in the 880, mile and hurdles, these departments are weak. A triangular meet with Midland and Central Frosh has been the only experience for the team, in which Mt. Pleasant placed second to Central Frosh. Brewster gathered 13 points in this meet with a first in the 100 and 220 and a second in the shot put. Powers cinched first in the high jump and second in the broad jump. Other point winners were as follows: Gover second in the discus, Van Dyne third in shot put. In the hurdles, Knight and Guy placed a third and fourth, Uhl and Rand, third and fourth in the 440. Downing tied for second in the pole vault. The relay team consisting of Servoss, Swain, Switzer and Brewster, took second place.

On May 2, the track team traveled to Cadillac. Brewster broke the 100-yard and 220-yard record, and Powers broke the high jump record. Downing placed first in the pole vault and the relay team placed second. The next meet is a triangular meet with Alma High and Central State Frosh. The meets following are: The regional meet, the state meet and conference meet.

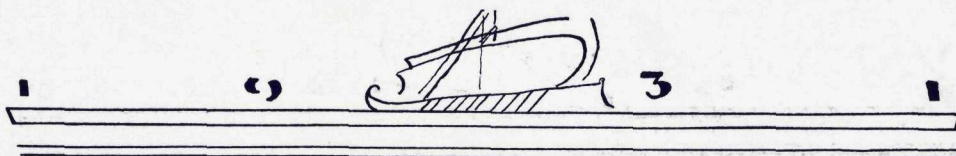

Golf and Tennis

Golf was also innovated this year into the sport program. With no dual matches the conference tournament at Mt. Pleasant decided the places of the conference. Greenville came first with a team score of 208. St. Johns placed second with 219 strokes for the team. Midland placed third, Alma fourth and Mt. Pleasant fifth. Those boys who participated for Mt. Pleasant are Johnson, Childs, Freeman, and Chamberlain.

Having had no tennis schedule previously, the idea was inaugurated this year. Holding practice sessions on the Brondstetter court, a team was soon picked with Bonnell as its captain. In its first match, the team tied the College Frosh team, three matches to three. The next match with Midland High proved fatal to Mt. Pleasant High's tennis hopes, being defeated seven matches to none. Not a single set was won by the locals against the veteran Midland team. The remaining matches were with Ionia, Alma, and the Conference tournament.

Baseball

With baseball returning to the sport program after a lapse of several years, more boys were given a chance at sports. As experience, the first game was played with Sacred Heart Academy which the High School won 5-0. The next game, with the veteran Coleman outfit, which had previously defeated Midland, ended in a slugging contest with the High diamonders on the long end of an 18-17 score. Ithaca was the next victim on the local diamond by a 5-2 score. Traveling to St. Louis the locals skidded to victory on a rain-soaked diamond with a 12-0 score. A return game with Coleman proved to be a 5-0 shutout for the former. The first conference game with Midland turned out to be the second defeat. Midland's bats cracked loudest to win a 13-6 victory. Away and home games with Alma, and return games with Midland and St. Louis constitute the remainder of the schedule.

Jokes

Helen Landon—"Did Mr Edison make the first talking machine, Grandpa?"

Grandpa—"No, my dear, God made the first talking machine, but Edison made the first one that could be shut off."

Impossible

Ed Van Dyne was seen standing before a billboard in Clare, shouting

"It can't be done! It can't be done!"

"What can't be done?" inquired inquisitive Glee Pitts.

Ed dumbly pointed to a sign, which read "DRINK CANADA DRY!"

Rev Hawkins to a fair young member of his flock "Do you come to church for the sermon or the music?"

Mary E. Whitcomb—"Neither I come for the 'Hymns.'"

Pat promised to catch Mike when he jumped out of a ten-story building.

Two months later Mike asked Pat why he didn't catch him. Pat said, "I was waiting for you to bounce."

Meta Bixy—"I wonder what we shall wear in heaven?"

Barbara Marshall—"If you're there I imagine most of us will wear a surprised look."

John Metheany—"Let's skip this class."

Emory Johnson—"Can't, I need the sleep."

Miss McComb—"What are the two most used words in the English language?"

Erma Trussell—"Don't know"

Miss McComb—"Correct."

Mr Wendt—"What are those little things under your desk, Virginia?"

V Tice (blushingly)—"My feet."

Miss LaMore—"What are people called who are always trying to point out other people's defects?"

Peggy Brainerd—"Teachers."

Miss Montague, (after explaining problem to students)—"Does everyone understand the problem clearly?"

Vol Courtright, (looking dumb) — "I don't quite understand it."

Miss M.—"Well, watch the board closely and I'll go through it."

Harry McShea "Samanthy, do you want me to bring you anything from the city?"

His wife—"Yes, Harry, you might bring me a few jars of that traffic jam I saw advertised in the paper"

"Dad," said Vinton C., asking his fifty-first question that evening, "Is a vessel a boat?"

"Well, yes," said his father, trying to read his paper, "you d call a vessel a boat, certainly"

"Well, what kind of a boat is a blood vessel?"

"A lifeboat, of course. Now run off to bed!"

Perhaps He Was Right

On the first day of school, the teacher asked the boys their names.

The first boy replied that his name was Si.

"No," Miss Woodruff corrected, "you musn't say Si, say Silas."

The next boy said his name was Tom.

"No," Miss W said impressively "it's Thomas."

"And now," she inquired of a lad in the end row, "what is your name?"

Anxious to please, the lad responded, "Jackass."

Jokes

Jack Tebbel—"Oh, Dad, come to the vaudeville with me. It costs two dollars, but you'll get more excitement out of that two dollars than you ever have had."

Dad (slowly)—"Oh, I don't know about that. Two dollars is all I paid for my marriage license."

Miss McComb—"I will not answer any questions on this test."

Curly Hendershot—"Shake, neither will I."

Don Mills (in restaurant) — "What are you swiping those spoons for?"

Jack Brewster—"The Doc told me to take two teaspoons after each meal."

Need for Apology

Shelton Fray—"The idea of letting your girl tell everybody she has made a man out of you. You don't hear my wife saying that about me."

Harold Powers—"No, but I heard her tell Smith that she had done the best she could."

Virginia Markey—"The man I marry must be brave as a lion, but not forward, handsome as Apollo, but not conceited, wise as Solomon, but meek as a lamb, a man who is kind to every woman, but loves only me."

Emory Johnson—"How lucky we met."

Elevator Girl—"Here's your floor, son."

Dick Swain — "Where do you get that 'son' stuff? You're not my mother"

Elevator Girl "Well, I brought you up didn't I?"

Miss Frandsen—"Where was the Declaration of Independence signed?"

Frank Rand—"At the bottom."

Bob Rand—"There's only one thing that girls can't do now"

Leo McGregor—"What's that?"

B. R.—"Grow a mustache."

L. M.—"Well, did you ever see grass on a race track?"

(Some fellow talking to Mr Francisco over telephone)—"How's the fire down in your end of town?"

Mr F.—"Oh, the fire's all right, but I'm bothered by a little spark in the front room."

W Riches—"Did you fill your date last night?"

P Robinson—"I hope so, she ate everything in sight."

Dwight G.—"Not married yet?"

Joseph L.—"No, not yet."

D. G.—"But, I thought you had serious intentions in a certain direction."

J L.—"I did, but the evening I went to propose to her before I got a chance, she told me she loved Brown-ing, Kipling, and Shelley Now what chance did I have with a girl in love with three other fellows?"

Buddie—"Bernice, how do our basketball teams ever get clean?"

Bernice—"Don't be silly What do you suppose the scrub teams are for?"

"Give three reasons for saying the earth is round," confronted Don C. on an examination paper

"My teacher says it's round, the book says it's round, and a man told me it was round."

Definitions as a Junior sees them:

Dust—Mud with the juice squeezed out.

Fan—A thing to brush warm off with.

Jokes

Miss Gray—"Give me a sentence with Soviet in it."

Lawrence Eckert—"We was hungry so vi et."

Mr Harold Daugherty, (the proprietor of a bathhouse at a beach) always broke bad news gently Thus he wrote the following letter to one of his patrons

Mrs. Metheany (nee Virginia Tice)

Your husband's bathing suit was washed out to sea this morning. It will probably be impossible to recover it.

P S.—Your husband was in it.

Miss Petty (giving test)—"How do you get a grip on the consumer?"

James Harris (answering it on test paper)—"Grab him! Hold him!"

Willis Landon—"Do you believe in clubs for women?"

Cecil Servoss—"Yes, if kindness fails."

Harold Knight—"Gosh, John Metheany sure has vanity He stands in front of the mirror admiring his good looks."

Floyd Whaley—"That isn't vanity—that's imagination."

Harold Lowery—"I think there's something wrong with you."

Gertrude Thompson—"Yes, but I keep it under my hat."

Judge Zier—"Was the auto going fast?"

Officer Walton—"Going fast! Sir it was going so fast that the bull-dog riding on the side looked like a dachshund."

Carolyn Tambling "You should change your style of dancing a little."

Curly H.—"In what way?"

C. T.—"You might occasionally step on my left foot."

Jack Gibson—"Say that's a fast looking bus you have there. What's the most you ever got out of it?"

Jack Brewster—"Seven times in a mile."

Movie Director Newcomb (discovering the dummy) — "My heavens! What was it we threw over the cliff?"

Mildred Barnes—"Is your apartment small?"

Florence McKnight—"Is it? Why we have to use condensed milk."

Romaine and Jean were out driving. Romaine had one arm around Jean, when the car hit a bump and skidded.

"Oh! Romaine," gasped Jean, "use two hands."

"Can't," says Romaine, grimly "gotta drive with one."

Mrs. Larrance—"Goodbye, Joe, and remember to dress warmly at college. I don't want you to catch that fraternity grippe."

E. Monroe, (looking at statue) — "Helen of Troy?"

K. Lewis—"Naw, plaster of Paris."

Mr Wendt—"How many subjects are you carrying?"

Jerry Williams—"One, and dragging three."

Mr and Mrs. and little Ernest Monroe were in the train, and all found seats but father, so he had to stand.

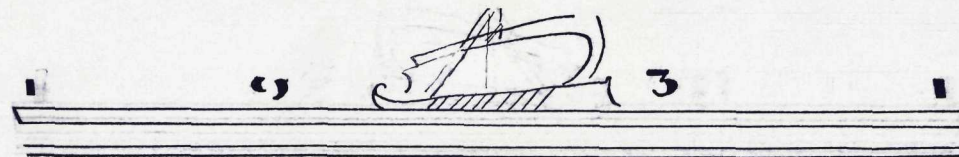

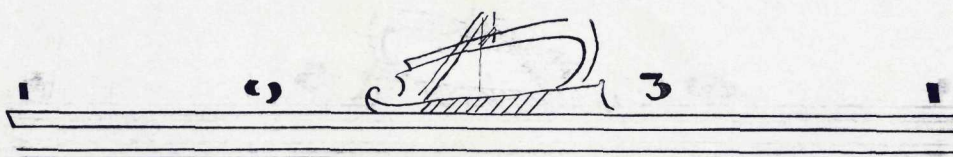

Mother—"Doesn't it pain you to see your father reaching for a strap?"

E. M. "Only at home, mother"

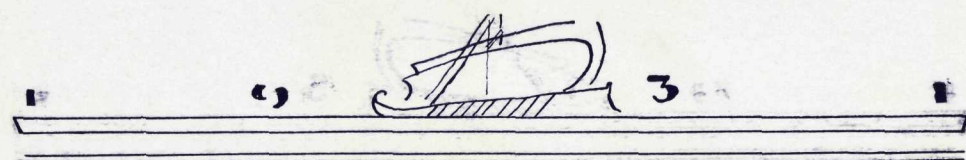

Bill Burt (telephoning)---"I'll be there in a jiffy"

Gladys Cupid (disappointedly)—"Aw, I tho't you had a Chrysler"

Nowadays the colossal skyscraper is the admiration of all who observe. It towers in radiant splendor high above the level of surrounding structures. Annuals, too, are like that. Books with the "modern feel" today are soaring head and shoulders above the crowd, in the competitive field of school publications. The Service Engraving Company takes pleasure in presenting this book as an example of our work.
